Then I spoke, not out of turn
But more out of hope that he would learn
My feelings for you
But my failing to

I didn't want to
I didn't need to
I didn't have to
I didn't mean to

But being human is just no excuse
For my hideous abuse of your love
Of your love

I want to (???) you
So very much
But you don't hold that trust
You don't believe in us

I didn't want to
I didn't need to
I didn't have to
I didn't mean to

But being human is just no excuse
For my hideous abuse of your love
Of your love

I know I'm imperfect
I'm not just saying it for the fact
I don't want to sacrifice the only thing I've cared for in my life

Forgive me
