Misty morning memories
Leaving while the city's still asleep
Salty tears on the old road map
Ten long years of lonely in the back
And I want to start forgetting as I cross the county line
I want to drive his memory from my mind

I'm taking the good-bye highway
I'm taking the good-bye highway
And I'm out on this road alone
On the good-bye highway

Lonesome plains and towns of steel
Leaving's just a turnin' of the wheel
Setting sun in the desert sky
Runnin' from the heartache in his eye
And I guess I'm just as lonely now as lonely ever gets Drivin' down that ribbon of regrets

I'm taking the good-bye highway
I'm taking the good-bye highway
And I'm out on this road alone
On the good-bye highway

(bridge)

I'm taking the good-bye highway
I'm taking the good-bye highway
And I'm out on this road alone
On the good-bye highway

Goodbye highway, goodbye highway, goodbye highway
