You gave him some good years
Now you'd like them back
Mistakes become clearer
After the fact

Now when you pick up the pieces
But you can't make them fit
Don't waste all your time
Trying to make sense of it

Just hurry back
To the land of the living
Things have changed
Since you've been gone

The world is turning
In the land of the living
Take a deep breath
Life goes on, life goes on

Come down from that dark cloud
What's done is done
Don't go down believin'
You're the only one

That ever felt heartache
Turn to regret
Oh, we've all got somethin'
We'd like to forget, that's right

Just hurry back
To the land of the living
Things have changed
Since you've been gone

The world is turning
In the land of the living
Take a deep breath
Life goes on, life goes on

Lean on my shoulder
And whisper your tears

We all need someone
To echo our fears

Oh, just hurry back
To the land of the living
Things have changed
Since you've been gone

The world is turning
In the land of the living
Take a deep breath
Life goes on, life goes on

In the land of the living
The world is turning
Life goes on
The world is turning
(The world is turning)
Life goes on
