"There Goes My Love"

There goes the one I used to know, there goes the one that I love so

There goes the arms that used to hold me tight

There goes the reason that I sigh, there goes the reason that I cry

There goes the lips I used to kiss goodnight, there goes my love

You're the first love of my life and you might be my last I don't want to be another memory in your past

There goes the one I used to know, there goes the one
that I love so

There goes the arms that used to hold me tight

There goes the reason that I sigh, there goes the reason that I cry

goes my love

I've got a feelin' for you dear, that's with my night and day

Just because we're far apart don't make it go away

There goes the one I used to know, there goes the one
that I love so

There goes the arms that used to hold me tight

There goes the reason that I sigh, there goes the reason that I cry

goes my love
