she's got the rhythm well i've got the blues she makes the choices i'm left to choose she talks in circles well i talk in tongues she's just beginning and i've just begun and i'm falling, falling for her charm

come on (7x) come in come on (4x) come on in

she wrote the letter i wrote the note she gets the laughter i tell the joke she makes a right move and i make a left she turns the corner and i turn my head and i'm falling, falling for her charm and she said

and you know that i don't know what it means when i hear that a dream is just a just a dream and all we need all we need is all we know madness and a little bit of hope she lights a candle well i start a flame she puts a hold on and i hold the reigns she loved the flowers i sent the rose we laugh for hours you don't suppose i'm falling, falling for her charm

you know i don't know what it means now when a dream is just a just a dream
