

Aeons Ov Frost "For Death"

Visit "For Death" on MotoLyrics.com

Living and breathing
There's no serious reason
To lie down and die
Fall into decay

Wishing and dreaming
There is no bereavement
Of soul and of life
Eternity's display

Did you think your existence won't come to an end?
Where is the end?

Do you think is it right all that you've done?
Maybe it's wrong
Over left shoulder there's the judge

Laughing and weeping
There is no dark reaper
To scare ov, to hide from
To live for regret

Inventing and creating
There's no limitation
To do what you want
No rest till the end

Do you think is it right all that you've done?
Maybe it's wrong

Did you think your existence won't come to an end?
Where is the end?
Over left shoulder there's the judge

All you fear all you hate
Is only a state ov your mind
Turn to dust all you create
Coz you're the human kind
