Wonderin' why, she caught me by the eye, movin' and persuin' while she with another man, I'll never let her go, I hope nobody knows and I keep my mouth closed

Her favorite past time is that fast kind, but i gotta slow it down, she's still recovering from last time, Somehow we ended up, sun up, with that shine, bad movie style, it'll never end, my day consists of skirt chasin women get baked go swimmin pushin the limits and imma go hard until the ground im in it (im in it) we'll get faded, but this'll never fade away, our game wont have to wait today, despite the clouds no rain delay

She pushed me i fell right back upon my bed, she's bumpin with my beat cuz her heads pressed against my chest, she likes the way i taste, say im a good kisser, took every word right outta her mouth and rolled it up in a swisher

we could bend the rules, i could teach ya things, you might regret it but i can do it better than him, detaching strings i make her laugh and think, i should probably listen to the words he's singin cuz you should leave him tonight, you bring your girls i got my guys, and we could stay at my place, it's right down that way feel her body move slow, tellin me she wanna go, it's another episode steppin out in the cold, in the middle of the road, and I'm far from sober
