At higher ground is where you'll find
The cure for the emptiness in your eyes
Letting go will get you high
You'll finally feel alive
If you can read between their lies
Beneath that thin line
Is where they try to hide
Everything you know you need
I won't let you fall short
I can see right through their walls
It's too late
But I can't help them anyway
I can feel your heart it's beating in my hands
I layed across your chest
I only did what I thought was best
And I can feel your heart
It's beating in my hands
I'll leave you the best I can
Just let em be
Just let em be
Is what they all say
But if I did
What happens then
Do I just walk away
Won't let em be Can't let em be
It's not who I am
Just hear me out
I promise that
It's for your own sake
Forgive, forget what you have done
It's all or none
Become the man you want be
Not the man they want to see
I can feel your heart it's beating in my hands
I layed across your chest
I only did what I thought was best
And I can feel your heart
It's beating in my hands
I'll leave you the best I can
The nights seem so long
What do you love

We built this from the ground up
And we won't watch it fall
We built this from the ground up, time to reap what's sewn
I can feel your heart it's beating in my hands
I only did what I thought was best
I don't need you to take this further
You tried to leave when I pulled you closer
Wake up and see that I left you the best I can
The night seems so long
You made me see what you'd become and then you left (I thought what I did was best)
Say no more, wake up and see
