Just this once, why don't you see things through?
You're drown for the count but I won't count you out
Just trust in me, I'll help you see
You always take the easy way out
Haven't you found where the road leads to yet

My Love
Why waste our youth like this?
We can't make too much of ourselves
Now I'm left with two
But we're stronger than we've ever been
Failure feeds on your dreams
Don't let it pull you down

You say it's too late now
Your flames burnt out
But can you say that you have tried?
You say it's too late now
Your flames burnt out
But you're a liar, liar!

Open your eyes again
I know I have prepared you for this
Our fight is between lions and men
They'll always tell you that you can't win

We will prove them wrong
For the first time but not the last time
Failure feeds on your dreams
Don't let it pull you down

You say it's too late now
Your flames burnt out
But can you say that you have tried?
You say it's too late now

Your flames burnt out
But you're a liar, liar!

Just take a breath, and do the right thing
I just hope that you can hear me
Just take a breath, and do the right thing

Are you even listening to me?
Why don't you open up and try, to see
That the hardest thing we can do
Is to follow though

Now you leave when we're closer than we've ever been (just do the right thing)
I'll follow through until we finish what we've started (just open up you're eyes and let me in)
And we will try to do the right thing
Just open up you're eyes and let me in
