They threw a painting
Over our eyes
Of a perfect world
Without lies
They hide the darkness
That's not to be shown
They are nothing but heartless
Out of the unknown

Chorus: 1x
They hide it all
Over our eyes
To make sure
We don't know their lies
The hidden truth
They wont tell
They can fucking
All go to hell

We are impaired
From knowing the truth
But all we fucking want
Is to know the truth
Don't hide your lies
Behind a fake portrait
Reveal yourself
And quit this shit

Chorus: 3x
They hide it all
Over our eyes
To make sure
We don't know their lies
The hidden truth
They wont tell
They can fucking
All go to hell

Outro: 4x
A poorly painted portrait
