Pitiful humanity
Destroying rights and nature
Embraced by insanity
Tortured by the fear of death
Inside their souls
Discrimination
They'll pay for their cowardice
They'll see our might

Damage in the air
Thirst for destruction
Sentenced to see their lives
In our mighty evil hands
Inside their souls
Discrimination
They'll pay for their cowardice
They'll see our might

Circle in Flames
Inside the cowards will
Burn until their bones will melt
Circle in Flames
The time is coming for
Sweeping all the ignorants

In the darkest parts of the universe
Where the purity has no place to be
Evil civilizations
Have spread their stink on earth
Ruining their motherland
Searching for domination
Political manipulations
Creating dogmas to kill our freedom

Fall from the throne
This place is no more for you
Bastard, fanatical product
