As I sit staring through the looking glass I cant help but think this to shall pass I don't ask to be harassed all I ask is, forgiveness from my heavenly father please don't bother just walking passed I'm still staring through the looking glass.

Chorus: As I look to the stars above
I pray for a shower of heavenly love from
You who said this too shall pass
I'm still staring through the looking glass.

He only lived 33 years but did enough to bring me to tears even though angels don't sing they make Better of everything all I'm asking as I look to the stars above is a shower of your gracious love

Chorus: As I look to the stars above
I pray for a shower of heavenly love from
You who said this too shall pass
I'm still staring through the looking glass
