It was all over for me when you said that you hated me all I want to do know is bleed, too much for you life is too much for me cant you see my heart and soul are empty Completely abandoned, stranded, picked up thrown away and left bandaged.
I wish you were me and I was you for just one day maybe

then you'll be in my life once again.

Chorus: Once again I loose a good friend once again I wish my life would fucking end all I know now is to leave a trail for you to come find me if your really a friend you'll be in my life once again.

Dumped me and left me what was the mind of the girl abraded me made me who I am now my life has done nothing but go down to the slumps where I came from the only thing on my mind is to say fuck it and run.

Leave my friends behind apparently they're blind.

I wish I woulda never even lived again, I shoulda died when,

Chorus: Once again I loose a good friend once again I wish my life would fucking end all I know now is
to leave a trail for you to come find me if your really
a friend you'll be in my life once again.
