Just about convinced myself that life was fine
Wanted to believe it too
'Cause guaranteed affection's always been, A favorite drug of mine
And you kept coming through
I don't think you understand
I'm not Lois Lane
You're not Superman
And no one's gonna save me from myself
You keep trying to rescue me
With anything and everything
But the only thing I want
Is something else

Pickin' up the pieces is what you do the best
You'd dry my tears and buy me shoes
I only wish I felt the kind of love
You want me to confess
But I can't lie to you

I don't think you understand
I'm not Lois Lane
You're not Superman
And no one is gonna' save me from myself
You keep trying to rescue me
With anything and everything
But the only thing I want

Is something unexpected

Something undirected

I don't wanna stay here

Just because it's safe here
