"Surfing On Tsunami"

I'm surfing on the tsunami,
Not far from the shore
This heavenly feeling, can't describe it
There's only me and my board
The tide is rising,
There is no hiding,
Enjoy the water and sunshine
Oh It would be nice if you joined me
It's something I want to share, with you

I'm surfing on the tsunami,
Not far from the shore
Feel the power of the tide, the mother nature,
The wave is knocking on the door
No more limits,
No more cities
No single wall can stop me from surfing
Oh It would be nice if you joined me
It's something I want to share
