Now I see that I'm falling apart
Help me, Save me from this disaster
Now I see that I'm not very far
Tell me, How to catch what I'm after

And I'm reaching out to you
Will you catch me when I fall into you

You see the fire burn in my eyes
With shaking hands I try
To not give up this time
I won't give up inside

Now I see that it's breaking your heart
Tell me, What we were after
Can we keep this from falling apart
Save me, From making my own disaster

And I'm reaching out to you
Will you catch me when I fall into you

You see the fire burn in my eyes
With shaking hands I try
To not give up this time
I won't give up inside
You see the fire burn in my eyes
I'll never compromise
Or let you down this time
Let you down inside
