No to the merger, say no to the merger, say no to the merger, say no!

I was a football fan since I was a kid
I loved the rivalry and the thrill of it
But nowadays it's all turning into shit
There are 2 big teams in my hometown
The best of them is a division down
Rumours go our club is ready to drown
Now glory hunters have a new goal
For one big team they wanna sell our soul
To hell with them 'cause we still take pride in the colours that we wear!

Don't let them take our team away
To the merger we say nay

Don't take our team away (X2)

Now politicians jump in the game
All they care about is their own fame
The mayor dreams of a pitch that gets his name
They try to make it look so nice
They'll sell our soul just to win a price
But we say no cause we still take pride in the colours that we wear!

Don't let them take our team away
To the merger we say nay
Don't take our team away (X2)

Even easy going fans will turn into fierce hooligans
To assure the merger doesn't stand a chance (X2)
