"Perpetual Demise"

Now I am calling nature
Asking her for forgiveness
For all the sins that I have done
And to ask her question why
Truth always hurts
And innocents are paying the price
Who is the one to judge
Who will live and who will die
Why freedom is sin why it hurts
Is perpetual demise
Becoming our only truth
Where did all beauty gone
And where are all those that I love
Is story of father - son
And from you forlorn
Now wherever the dark is near
It reminds me to an long time dormant fear
Because it have a stench of truth
Repulsive images of raped youth
Now I am calling nature
Asking her for forgiveness
For all the sins that I have done
Forgive me I am your son
