I fed of power
That is running through my mind and veins
Which cannot deny all the sorrow and all the pain
Can you save me
Can you save me from myself
When memory turns all my love into hate
Than I don't really care
If the end of our time is came near
Because of the pain that I feel
An everlasting pain
So forever I will stay in control
Of this agonizing soul
Veil of sorrow with delight had embraced
One life that was about to be erased
This soul have no solution
Destroyed by evolution
That is making human being blind
Repulsive kind
