Removing you is something that I can't explain,
And it ain't even a question of what's my name, girl,
So other things that she doubted,
Baby, I'm so willing to talk about it,
Baby I, I know it seems like,
I ain't the love type that can love right.
Baby I love right!

Baby you know what you love in a relationship,
It's hard to desert, cause you can fall in,
So what you do is relay on your silence
It's so hard to know, because:

Chorus:

The only way to see things is to feel,
As if I was writing you in Braille,
The only way to know is holding you,
Who can ever love you like I do?
It's better to believe when you can't touch,
Sometimes the word is just too much!
But everybody needs some that they can feel,
So if you can't see it
Baby I put it in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey
So you'll see it baby I put it in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey

So you know,
I've given you everything you could ever ask for,
Plenty to do
Plus some real good time
Who could ever ask for more?
But you think that I am
Pushing you away
When I'm really tryna
Push you to stay
There's only 24 hours in a day
And I was nearly all with you

Baby you know what you love in a relationship,
It's hard to desert, cause you can fall in,
So what you do is relay on your silence
It's so hard to know, because:

Chorus:

The only way to see things is to feel,
As if I was writing you in Braille,
The only way to know is holding you,
Who can ever love you like I do?
It's better to believe when you can't touch,
Sometimes the word is just too much!
But everybody needs some that they can feel,
So if you can't see it
Baby I put it in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey
So you'll see it baby I put it in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey!

Baby I, baby I could never truly deny you
My ability to not hold you is what blinds you
You got me searchin, searchin, searchin trying to find you
It's so hard to know because:

Chorus:

The only way to see things is to feel
As if I was writing you in Braille
The only way to know is holding you
Who could ever love you like I do
It's better to believe when you can touch
Sometimes the words is just too much
But everybody needs something that they can feel
So if you can't see it
Baby I put it in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey
So you'll see it baby I put it in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey, in Braille
Hey hey
Baby just so you'll know
