If you look in my eyes you'll see what lies inside
my little mind. My motives are useless, but they tie me up and control my every move.
And these cobwebs, they are my eyes and now I'm blind.
And I'm buying the lie, but it doesn't seem to die.
So take my hand and walk with me out of this graveyard.
Of self infliction, I'm a walking contradiction.
I can't seem to kill it, and I can't seem to wake up from this dream. With the angels singing and the soulless spread their wings. They're circling me surrounded by buzzards that feed in vain.
And when the darkness consumes me I'll be the one that's still left here, standing soulless.
