I am the wolfman.
I have come to take what's mine yes.
I had the wolfgirl.
A fever for me
Is what she had,
And that's alright.
I had the wolfgirl.
I had the wolfgirl, hell was mine yes.
I had a fever for her.
A fever for her
And that's alright.

Well, I want you to know
That I will be
The last man standing
On my own
Two feet again.
