"Into The Akelarre"

From the dawn of ageless
Times, for the great evil that Comes from the past, some
Lives will have to end for
Satan to rule again, crowds
In black move into the Pentagram to worship the
Merciless god of hell.
Time runs against the sun
To recover the eternal night,
Let the black star of hell
Unshine in the sky, the light
Will fade forever! It's not the Thrill of death that will
Please the evil one, it's the Cruelty of the act, it's the Ritual! This coven has not
And end, it will never end!
And so we are dead, but still
Walking, into the akelarre!
