Sometimes I hear a voice telling
Through my passions
That I have no choice but my
Fate and it's reasons

Reflections on obsessions
Obsessions of the reflections
It is strange, this feeling
Obsessions of the reflections
Reflections on obsessions

Poison fades
As my veins drown you heart
Of a tear, of a last spark

I see more and more
Sparks in the mirror
The more it shines
The more the tone seems mine

Reflections on obsessions
Obsessions of the reflections
It is strange, this feeling
Obsessions of the reflections
Reflections on obsessions

Poison fades
As my veins drown you heart
Of a tear, of a last spark

I see more and more
Sparks in the mirror
The more it shines
The more the tone seems mine

Night after night
I forgot such a pain could have been real
But if my heart is still bleeding
Even it's beat I can not feel
