I have no remains
Of the cold melodies
Winter played within me
No light I can bring
Through the shadows
And my dreams faded in blood

Crystal tears will not ever fade
From my eyes to my hands
Stolen by my other face

All I am is nothing but a lie
I understand and can not deny
Winter plays a last melody
The first had made the priest sleep to eternity

Crystal tears will not ever fade
From my eyes to my hands
Stolen by my other face
