All the world leaves me weary
No break, no release now
Â'Til youÂ're lying by me
And I lay down my sword

ThereÂ's just one thing I crave
One thing that can save me
When warÂ's unrelenting and cold
Your passion, it comforts my soul

Breathe into me
Fire of my dreams
What can revive me like this now
Breathe into me
And all that I need
Is flowing like wine past my lips now

Feel my heart soar
I Â'm living once more
Call out my name IÂ'll believe
I come alive as IÂ'm taking you in
I breathe

When the world is a battle
I reach for my lover
Feel your essence in mine
My hope in your hands

ThereÂ's just one thing I feel
One thing that is still real
The sigh in your kiss sets me free
Your spirit comes blowing through me

Breathe into me
Fire of my dreams
What can revive me like this now
Breathe into me
And all that I need
Is flowing like wine past my lips now

Feel my heart soar
I Â'm living once more

Call out my name Iâ'll believe
I come alive as Iâ'm taking you in
I breathe

To breathe is to live
To breathe is to love
The one I adore

To breathe is divine
Your lips touching mine
And I am reborn

Breathe into me
Fire of my dreams
What can revive me like this now
Breathe into me
And all that I need

Feel my heart soar
I come alive as Iâ'm taking you in
I breathe

I breathe
I breathe
