Finally ours, this blessed of days
Two paths converge to create one new way
And now you and I before all will prove
Joy is alive when love says "I Do"

See the sun rise, welcoming all
Each of our friends have now answered the call
Natural as one heart born from two
Our hope fulfilled when love says "I Do"

Let all creation stand up and behold
The glory of God in our vow
Love that is true should be honored with pride
What God has joined, let no one deny

We've fought so hard, struggled so long
Holding back noise that once drowned out our song
We know by faith that God's gift is true
And angels will sing when love says "I Do"

Let all creation stand proud and behold
The freedom of love to so choose
All of us equal in His holy eyes
What God has joined, let no one deny

Come take my hand, in thanks we will pray
No more will judgment and fear block our way
Heaven and earth affirm what is true
Saints will rejoice when love says "I Do"

Show me your smile, most blessed of sights
He who created love grants us this right
Two simple words, one world that is new
God He will smile when love says "I Do"

And with this ring, we will be wed
Only one thing still remains to be said
Now say the words, I'll say them to you
All will be right, when love says "I Do"

All will be right, when love says "I Do"
