Sing to the Lord a new song of praise
Let all the people cry out with joy
His hand will guide each hour of our day
Trumpets and harps will declare the way
Shout out a new song to give Him praise

Let the children now approach him
Let the lamb and lion play
Let us gather all together here
To praise Him and to pray

We will draw our hands together
And our lips will speak His Word
And in this communion we will find
New voices will be heard

Sing to the Lord a new song of praise
Let all the people cry out with joy
His hand will guide each hour of our day
Trumpets and harps will declare the way
Shout out a new song to give Him praise

We have come to give Him worship
We have come to seek His cross
And together we will leave behind
The sadness of our loss

For the world will see His glory
And we all will feel His love
And the dawn will bring the glorious Son
His rising up above

Sing to the Lord a new song of praise
Let all the people cry out with joy
His hand will guide each hour of our day
Trumpets and harps will declare the way
Shout out a new song to give Him praise

Come to the Lord with your arms open wide
Rise from the shadows – no longer hide
Sing with the words that the Spirit inspires
Sing with a heart on fire

Sing to the Lord a new song of praise
Let all the people cry out with joy
His hand will guide each hour of our day
Trumpets and harps will declare the way

Sing to the Lord a new song of praise
Let all the people cry out with joy
His hand will guide each hour of our day
Trumpets and harps will declare the way

Sing to the Lord a new song of praise
Let all the people cry out with joy
His hand will guide each hour of our day
Trumpets and harps will declare the way
Shout out a new song to give Him praise

Shout out a new song to give Him praise
