3:30 sharp, and the bell rings to start
Action, adventure for our young heroes
Regular guys as the night starts to rise,
Here's the surprise: no one knows that Once past the schoolyard, they change who they are Flashy equipment is par for agents
Dark shades and dark suits, they're playin' the part Travelin' far - fast life, fast cars - just like the movies they star

Chorus:

They're teenage - fightin' machines
They're super - stylish and lean
They're spies - can't see their eyes
They're masters of disguise
They're teenage - young and they're mean
They run in - a world of their dreams
In danger - right after school
They save the world - look so cool

Come see a night through their eyes
They're super spies

10 o'clock sharp, and the world's getting dark
Suspects and victims abound, be careful
Earning their pay in mysterious ways
That's what they say, so watch out, watch out
Quarter to 12, what comes next, who can tell
No one would guess that it's all a game now
Nothing gets solved soon as love is involved
Come in, come on - see what you want - take what you need and get gone

Chorus

Mystery, intrigue, and lies
They're super spies

Stylish and debonair, icy and cold
Words that are clever and smart
Secret identities can't hide your soul
When nothing exists in your heart

2AM babe, and the world has been saved
Mission accomplished, or so they're thinkin' but Nobody's fooled by our boys here from school Gadgets and might, ready to fight, all that won't save you tonight

Chorus

Oh, oh they're teenage
Oh, oh they're teenage super spies
Oh, oh they're teenage
Oh, oh they're teenage super spies

Don't hide from what you know then
Don't lie, don't lie just like them
Come see a night through their eyes
They're super spies
