If I could only speak to you,
Like I did it before,
Why did it all have to change,
I know nothing no more,
(Living on hopes and dreams)...

I get all my promises,
I kept you deep in my heart,
But now you won,
You have won my feelings,
My hopes and dreams,
Left without a meaning,
I am lost and blind,
With no change of mind,
What is there left to do...

If I knew that you were mine,
I'd keep a lock on my heart,
I keep you warm with my delight,
I'd know, we'd never part...

Hopes and dreams,
(They died without your love),
They let my heart on fire,
Hopes and dreams,
Were build upon secrets,
Now I'm waiting now,
For your love...

Are flowing with the wind,
Like a turbo going stronger,
Hopes and dreams,
Were build upon secrets,
Now I'm waiting now,
For your love...
