I don't like to be your friend 'Cause I can do much better
Can give you many more things To prove you I'm your man.

Why should I give in and be a loser Can't you see that all I want to
Is your love
So I'm gonna change and make
Another start

I'd like to be your hero
Time when my feeling's right
And I guess you won't mind
Sometimes hero
Spending the rest of my life
Like you hero not only your lover

I don't want to be a toy
You're using to play with
A toy you drop or break
To prove yourself you're strong

Why should put up with my big lot
Can't you see that all I want
Is I'm gonna chance and make
Another start
