Once we get over the hill
We'll find a library
I like the bird books best
But you can choose from a variety

And if you shake the book really fierce
Out will fly a note from me
I know we'll get there eventually
But I'm english, so bear with me

I love you
Oh, I love you

We feed ducks in the local park
And eat ice-cream, get all jittery
Not from the sugar in the dessert itself
But from what you do to me
I want us to be sewn together
On a detailed embroidery
So the distance and the water between us

Won't keep you away from me

I love you
Oh, I love you

Well, all the rivers, oceans and lakes
Try to wash you on a shore faraway
And all the miles and the months that we wait
I've packed my suitcase, I'm here to stay
Oh, I will walk across vast miles of sand
To keep wrapped up in your hands
It's just a shame that from the very beginning
You've always been her man

I love you
Oh, I love you

It's just a shame that from the very beginning
You've always been her man
