(Verse)

There's a river in my mind and it won't stop running just for you

But there's a thousand forest fires between a sand I can't get through

There's a race you got me running and I pray before the sun is down

I can't keep holding on

You know this love is taking over me

I tried so hard I tried to breathe

I tried to carry on

(Chorus)

Heartbreaker, I cannot be

It's so over, so sad indeed

Heartbreaker, so over

(Verse)

Now I know it had to broken up

In time they heal so they say

But this heart of me chocking just to breathe

Another kiss, are made

And there's a race you got me running

And I stumbled, I carry on I'm left my dive behind

You know this love has taken over me

I try so hard, I tried to breathe ye

I tried to carry on

(Chorus)

Heartbreaker, I cannot be

It's so over, so sad indeed

(Bridge)

Sign on the door and if that is what it takes to set me free

And then I'll turn around and tear it off

If that is what I need to do, I will
