The the the the only one for (repeat)

I throw my doors wide open
There's no place left to hide, no
Give me all I need, I'll stay out all my life
I'm talking to you

U gotta be the one for me, yeah yeah yeah
The only one the only one
U gotta be the one for me, yeah yeah yeah
The only one that's good enough for me

I give you everything
But things don't seem to go right, no
I think of you almost every day and almost every night
I'm talking to you

U gotta be the one for me, yeah yeah yeah
The only one the only one
U gotta be the one for me, yeah yeah yeah

The only one that's good enough for me

I throw my doors wide open
I think of you almost every day and almost every night
I'm talking to you

U gotta be the one for me, yeah yeah yeah
The only one, the only one
U gotta be the one for me, yeah yeah yeah
The only one that's good enough for me

U gotta be the one for me, yeah yeah yeah
The only one, the only one
U gotta be the one for me, yeah yeah yeah
The only one that's good enough for me

The the the the only one for (repeat)
