I've got the feeling I been needing to release my inner being to you

But if you don't know how to tame me then maybe you got some learning to do

But if you want boy I can take your breath away

But I do not recommend cause if you want more I can promise you'll regret the words that you just said!

Cause my love ain't like a medicine

You'll only get colder when we get closer

And my touch feels like a venom when you let me get underneath your skin

My love is like ow ow ow ow ow

My love is like ow ow ow ow ow

What's a little pain if you say that you love me?

Got your heart on a rod what can you do now?

Wave it in front of your face light up the flames

Survive a kiss from my lips

Ain't no way out

Scream as loud as you want

You'll turn yourself down

My love ain't like a medicine

You'll only get colder when we get closer

And my touch feels like a venom when you let me get
underneath your skin

My love is like ow ow ow ow ow

My love is like ow ow ow ow ow

What's a little pain if you say that you love me?

Don't gotta understand just obey the words I say

You'll give me everything but my love is inflicting

I promise I'll be the last thing you ever see

My love ain't like a medicine

You'll only get colder when we get closer

And my touch feels like a venom when you let me get
underneath your skin

My love is like ow ow ow ow ow

My love is like ow ow ow ow ow
