Like a ghost you follow me now
Your shadow is
Behind me when I look around
I feel a touch. I think I hear your breath.
I try to put some space between us.
But it doesn't help.
And I know now. that's the way its gonna be.
Yes I know now. you'll catch up to me.

Refrain:

Every little step I take. every single move I make.
Maybe there is no escape. no matter how far I've come
I still feel close to you. I don't care what I do.
Baby I love you and I know you're the one
But my hearts on the run.
I was alone that's how I thought it should be.
I never found some one I wanted next to me.
But now I see the world through different eyes.
You found your way into my arms and into my life
And I know now, that's the way its got to be.
Yes I know now. I want you here with me.
Undeniable, inescapable
What's been going on? baby, its powerful
Why do I even try? when I know
That I cant get away
I just cant get away.

And I know now. that's the way its got to be.
Yes I know now. we were mean to be
