Why Does It Always Rain On Me

Don't go, don't stop this romance stay here, please one more night how can you say: "It's our last dance" you promised: "I'll stay by your side" don't try, don't try to fool me how can i live, when you're gone and how can you stop the sun from shining tell me where my heart belongs

Why does it always rain on me
oh I don't know Why you'll set me free
why does it always rain on me - and the time will show oh you're my destiny

Don't talk, don't say it's over someday we're gonna love again I'll tell my friends: "I'll will show her, a love like this will never end" maybe this love is forever maybe you'll throw it all away why can't we just live here together is this love - like the end of a day

Why does it always rain on me
Why you'll set me free

oh you're my destiny
