When the day is done
and I'm here on my own I wish myself to another place I can see your eyes and remember the time when you were by my side

All the moments we shared and the feeling was there for a while

Refrain:
You've got that look,
you've got that smile
to make me feel I'm in love again
deep down inside,
I know that you're mine
when you are holding me tight

From the stars above to the world below
a love so big and it's still to grow in the darkest night you will be the light to show which way to go

You're the air that I breathe everything that I need
in my life

Refrain:
You've got that look,
you've got that smile
deep down inside,

And you are the star that fills my heart with light from near to far

and love will be our guide

Refrain:

You've got that look,
you've got that smile
deep down inside,

You make me smile
Deep down inside
