I guess, I should say
What is on the tip of my tongue
Coz I've seen, how it aches
When you've missed your chance the time's gone

It's not decisions caused you so much pain
An you come round again
An there's nothing left, at all
Perfect vision, now I'm running blind
Too scared of what I'll find
When you call

Only now I've let go
Hunny I just don't know
Sit right here and watch the sky above for a sign
Tell me will you miss me
When I'm in your history
Baby there aint nothing good about this goodbye

If you, are the one
This regret will last forever
Coz no body knows
If we should stay together

It's not decisions caused you so much pain
An you come round again
An there's nothing left, at all
Selfish but I think, its for the best
I'll miss you for the rest
Of my life

Only now I've let go
Hunny I just don't know
Sit right here and watch the sky above for a sign
Tell me will you miss me
When I'm in your history
Baby there aint nothing good about this goodbye

Only now I've let go
Tell me will you miss me
When I'm in your history
Baby there aint nothing good about this goodbye
