Beyond paradise I rule
The string that ties me into life
Is your greed, your anger and your envy
Ghost of your reality
I walk; paths of firm hatred have been there,
Many life's before.

Sanctuary of evil
Host of truth

Bestial visions of Satan,
Is now the way
Towards Christian salvation.
Is now part of the circus,
The catholic circus of mankind.

Sanctuary of evil
Host of truth

I'm waiting for you now, come, walk with me,
Walk with us, the army of Satan
Truth is our sword, hatred is our shield.

We are the fire to warm you from the cold, frozen god.
The magic of the ancient ones.

Beyond paradise I rule
The string that ties me into life
Is your greed, your anger and your envy
Ghost of your reality
I walk; paths of firm hatred have been there,
Many life's before.

Sanctuary of evil
Host of truth
