Oh oh oh...

And friend I can't help it I am selfish and reckless
And I do not care for anybody's feelings but my own
Oh I know that these feelings they are fleeting
It's just that this cold cold heart, I really took a beating

Oh oh oh...

Oh I spent all my time running from what's good for me
Now I carry this hole in my chest for the whole world to see
And how embarrassing this loneliness can be
And how embarrassing for you sir that you fell for my trickery

Oh oh oh...

And I can't help but feel that the whole world is on my heels and I
Can't help but feel that the whole world is on my heels and I
Can't help but feel that the whole world may be on my heels

Oh oh oh..
