Dancing feet across our livingroom
There was a time when we were slipping on ice
I remember how we cried in your room
Darling I believe the ice is gone

Summertime is here with us
Words so hard to say
Became our ticket to sunshine
Winter days please stay away!
Maybe love is blind, but for sure love is one

Words so sweet, they give air to breathe as I'm drowning in your sea-coloured eyes
Dancing feet across our livingroom
I think you would agree

Summertime is here with us
We broke the ice before, it broke our hearts
Winter days, please stay away!
Maybe love is blind, but for sure love is one and so are we

Nana nana nana..
Love is one and so are we!
Nana nana nana nana naa..
