Please do not disturb me, I am busy trying to support my family
What's more important than that?
I'll think about what you said

Do not disturb me, I am busy Situation has become unstable to help you I need to be sure Prefer knowledge before belief

When hills and mountains start tumbling down
When man-made structures turn into sand
When all achieved becomes meaningless
You tell me when you will understand

Aaahh...

You need to wake up now my child the alarm's been sounding for quite a while A parade of children just passed by Dancing, laughing, singing songs

You need to wake up now my child
Last night you smiled and kissed me goodnight
This sleeping isn't right through all different sounds of alarms

Oooohh...

When hills and mountains start tumbling down
When man-made structures turn into sand
When all achieved becomes meaningless
