More wishes than a thousand hearts can count for you
More smiles than a merry-go-round
The sweetest ending to a bed-time story told
My love follows you where you go

More laughter than a kindergarden out to play
One sunday morning song that says it all
More summer than the california beach can hold
My love follows you where you go

Chorus:
Future like a promise, you're city of gold
Stubborn in your bones and
Jesus in your soul
Seeing you stand up, staring at the unknown
I wont pretend that it's not killing me watching you walk away slow

Take forgiveness, take a prayer, take the deepest breath
Take the answers in your heart
When you wake up and the world is cruel and cold
My love, follows you where you go

Chorus:
Future like a promise, you're city of gold
Stubborn in your bones and
Jesus in your soul
Seeing you stand up, staring at the unknown
I wont pretend that it's not killing me
Watching you walk away slow

More freedom than a field of flowers in the wind
More beauty than a morning after rain
Of the steepest in the dark and crooked road
My love follows you where you go

Chorus:
Future like a promise, you're city of gold
Stubborn in your bones and
Jesus in your soul
Seeing you stand up, staring at the unknown

I wont pretend that it's not killing me
Watching you walk away slow
