When you came to me
you said love could not erase the ever present memory of another face.
I tried to make you love me how could i so blind to think i'd be the one to change your mind.

(chorus)
And if i'm gone before you start well you can find me in your heart. who can say if it's right or wrong i've waited for you to long and if i can't hold on, i'm gone.

When you came to me
i said love will find a way for every heart that leaves another heart will stay. i guess you couldn't see past the shadows in the night it seems that time for us just wasn't right.

Repeat chorus
