every time you think you won't make it and each time you're convinced that you can't take it picture me in this light think of me, you can fight i've been chewed up and spit i've been big, i've been hit i've been burned but i have learned that we survive, we get by we take the hit and we learn to fight we collide, but we don't die trying to put out wildfires when you get the feeling that it's not in you and all those times remind you of what you can't do remember me, i've lost and loved and i am not giving up though i've been torn, i've been used i've been fooled, i've abused all my rights to living, but i'm alive

'cause we survive, we get by

let them come, i'm going to let them take me let them burn up everything that's made me 'til the end, i swear, i'm never going to let them break me

though i've been crushed, i've been killed i've been scared, but god, i will keep on trudging up this crazy hill we survive, we get by

we collide, but we don't die

when there's no doubt how it's going to turn out let them burn out, never put out wildfires
