SecretÂ...It took a secret
Secret

I Need to break these chains around me
'Cause you make me feel so alone
In a secret place would you find me?
Is this what I'm asking for?

This war is over
With you a river cried (a river cried)
This game is getting older
It's burning deep inside

It took a secret to control my mind
I have this feeling that I can't define
Why is it so hard? But I'll stay alive
You know that I need to say goodbye(Say goodbye)

If only I could wish my fortune
Life would be a place of my own
I could reach the top of the mountain
See all the writings on the wall

Life makes you falter
Like a file not found (a file not found)
Let your heart open and you'll never back down,
Down to the ground

It took a secret to control my mind
I have this feeling that I can't define
Why is it so hard? But I'll stay alive
You know that I need to say goodbye

It took a secret to control my mind
I have this feeling that I can't define
Why is it so hard? But I'll stay alive
You know that I need to say goodbye(Say goodbye)

Say goodbye
(It took a secret to control my mind)
oooooooooh

(I have this feeling that I can't define)
Say goodbye
(Why is it so hard? But I'll stay alive)
(You know that I need to say goodbye)

It took a secret to control my mind
I have this feeling that I can't define
Why is it so hard? But I'll stay alive
You know that I need to say goodbye

Say good-bye
(It took a secret to control my mind)
oooooooooh
(I have this feeling that I can't define)
Say goodbyeeeeeeee
(Why is it so hard? But I'll stay alive)
(You know that I need to say goodbye)

It took a secret to control my mind
I have this feeling that I can't define
Why is it so hard? But I'll stay alive
You know that I need to say goodbye
