I guess that everything has to change but you know that's not really news you need to go on and push trough your own way I'm not making you choose You're not the man that you used to be now I see your fear pretending everything's under control and now you can't seem to hear I won't cry, I can't feel that way no more there's no more waiting goodbye I can't see your way no more I'm here
with so much I wanna do Now I'm so much more stronger than you so much more stronger than you
so much more stronger than you
so much more stronger than you I know that I wasn't part of your world but i just didn't care there was so much I wanted to tell you I was always too scared I couldn't see anybody but you I'm just letting you know I thought that we could somehow talk it through but I still had to go
I won't cry I can't feel that way no more Cry that's all I was good for Goodbye I'm ready to close the door I'm here
with so much I wanna do and I'm so much more stronger than you oh.... everyday I find a little piece of me now, time to show it I know what will be will be
