*yeah boy, you're killin time, killin time until the killin time.

she says good-bye, she doesn't love you anymore.*

fly in the web waiting to die,
wondering why i'm not the spider.
sun will rise, the sun will set.
the things i've said will haunt me forever a change is due in sight and in sound next time around i'll be the spider i won't make the same mistakes again (repeat)

the sun will rise, the sun will set the things that i've said will haunt me forever a change is due in sight and sound next time around
i'll be the spider
next time around
next time around
(repeat til end)
