Once upon a time
He said to me
You will be my queen
And I will be your fool

And we will live together
In the garden light
And we will sleep forever
Through the endless night

Join our minds together
Just a little pinprick here
A bottle of oblivion
Whispers in your ear

And we will live together
In the garden light
And we will sleep forever
Through the endless night

Breathe
Breathe my darling breathe
Fight my darling fight
Through this endless night

Once upon a time
In another life
The King and Queen will rise
From the endless night

And we will live together
In the garden light
And we will sleep forever
Through the endless night

Breathe
Breathe my darling breathe
Fight my darling fight
Through this endless night

Breathe
Breathe my darling breathe

Fight my darling fight
Through this endless night
